After having apparently presented yesterday's game to Roanoke by a combination of errors in the fourth inning, giving the visitors three runs to Richmond's two, the Colts went in to that moment regarded as a victory with nobody out. Not another error was made, save the three successive misplays in that inning, and in no other did Roanoke get more than one hit off Salve. It was a sensational finish to a game which was in the fourth inning, and the visitors were thrown away. Few expected it to be pulled out of the fire, but the unexpected occurred. With the exception of that disastrous fourth, the locals played great ball, the visitors having no other chance to score.

Morrissey, Roanoke's star pitcher, was in the pit for the visitors and was effective in all save the third and ninth innings, when Richmond scored its two pairs of runs.

Salve fanned the first two Roanoke bats to face him in the opening inning, and then retired the other on a pop fly. For the Colts Heffron singled, Reeve sacrificed, but Titman and Wallace went out, pitcher to first and second to first.

In the second Heffron fanned, Rickard, who was short to first, and Raley singled. McMahon fanning, Sieble was out short to first. Warren drove a two-bagger to left; Cowan was out, short to first, and Walsh sent a fly to Eustace.

Cooper led off with a hit in the third; Morrissey sacrificed; Heffron sent a fly to Wallace and Warren threw Eustace out. For the Colts Salve broke the ice with a single to right; he took third on Raley's error and scored on Heffron's double to left. Heave sacrificed, Heffron to third; and he scored on McMahon's poor throw to catch him at the plate on Titman's drive. Titman was thrown out at third while trying to reach that bag. Two runs.

Roanoke's opportunity came in the fourth. Brodie was safe when Cowan dropped the ball; Heffron landed on first on Warren's error, and Rickard beat out a pretty bunt. Raley's single scored two men. The third scored on Heffron's error, but McMahon, who had reached first on the fielder's choice, was out, dying at the plate as Raley had done a moment before. It was great playing that held the score down.

After that Roanoke did not get a hit until the ninth, and that was fruitless. Richmond hit in the fourth, fifth and eighth, but could not make them productive. In the ninth the crowd cheered when Wallace came to bat, and Morrissey passed him to first, probably intentionally. Then the roars began yelling and when Sieble beat out an infield bounder by an eyelash, the enthusiasm increased. Wallace had gone to third on Sieble's hit, and the latter swiped second. Then Warren came to bat.

The crowd appealed to him to smash it out. He did. The ball was driven far over the center-fielder's head, and two runs came in, ending the game. It was a great finish, and sent the crowd home in good humor.

Umpire Liebrich, who made his debut before a Richmond audience, did eminently satisfactory work, and ruled the players with a firmness that will be effective in preventing further wrangling. In the eighth inning he was struck over the heart by a terrible foul ball, but he recovered himself and sought to restore him to consciousness. In a few moments two doctors responded, and after four or five minutes, the umpire was able to rise. He was then escorted to the hospital, and the end of the game, but he picked up to his work.

In the eighth inning Umpire Liebrich ordered Manager Brodie to the bench for offensive kicking, and when he went, and then in a fit of resentment or temper, took a catcher's mask into the air and let it fall just in front of the plate. Liebrich became peremptory and ordered Brodie to the game. He was slow to respond, and the police were called upon. Captain Epps, Sergeant Sowell and Patrolmen Redford and Butler, a diminutive squad of bluecoats, walked out with dignity and escorted Brodie to the gate. Brodie claims that he was struck on the wrist by a pitched ball, but the umpire declined to allow the claim.

Hobbs will probably work in today's game for the Colts, while Willis or Heffron will likely pitch for Roanoke. Reynolds will be saved for Saturday's game, when a double-header will be played, and Heffron or Morrissey will pitch the other game.

The score of yesterday's game follows:

INDIANS SCALP BLUEFIELD BOYS

Nebraska Redskins' Baseball Team Win by Hitting Streak.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLUEFIELD, W. Va., September 5.—Before one thousand or more fans the Nebraska Indians scalped Bluefield in one of the hardest fought baseball battles in the history of Bluefield. The Indians seemed doomed in the opening innings, being unable to connect with Reese's delivery. Even the sagacious Bluefield fans, who had bet on the Indians, seemed to be in a state of confusion. In the third, however, the Indians found Reese, pounding him all over the field. In the first half of the game Bluefield gained, and when the locals stopped the score stood 5 to 4 in favor of Bluefield.

In the sixth the Indians opened with a couple of singles and a double, netting them six runs and enough to win. The game was errorless, the features of the first half of the game. The Indians pulled off some pretty plays, robbing Bluefield of at least five more hits. All of the runs were scored in the first half of the game. The hitting of Barr was a feature, he getting a hit every time he got to bat. Bluefield is to have a game on the home ground every day until the close of the season.

The Indians also defeated the Bramwell team in two games yesterday, the scores being 2 to 1 and 5 to 4.

Decline Races Off.
HARTFORD, Conn., September 5.—The Charter Oak Grand Circuit races have all been declared off. The decision was reached to-day at a conference of the drivers and representatives of the stables entered in the race. The cause was the result of the continued inclement weather.

Manager Baker donated the entire proceeds to the Winchester Soldiers' Home. Winchester plays at Hagerstown on Saturday, and will disband Saturday night. The team has won over thirty per cent. of the games played won.

WARRENTON SHOW GROWS IN INTEREST

Attendance Yesterday Is Estimated at Eight Thousand Persons.

WARRENTON, Va., September 5.—The second day of the Warrenton Horse Show was a duplication of the opening day's success, and far exceeded it in point of attendance and interest. The Virginia Hunter Improvement Society's class for mares suitable to produce hunters was a great success. It had an entry of twenty-six mares. This is the first time it has ever had a class of mares. A class which proved to be one of the most interesting features of the day was that of the green hunters which had never before been a blue ribbon. In this class Mr. Harry Edmonds, of the "Tree to One," beat the "One to Tree" and "One to One." Another interesting feature was that of the pairs of hunters, ridden over jumps abreast. The silver cup presented by the business men of Warrenton, Va., to the winner of the "Green Hunters" driving class was awarded to Lady Gay, owned by Garber & Garber. Frank Neer, on his horse, Warrenton, got a jump over the Corinthian class. Attendance, 8,000.
